Knight for a Day

This is a unique opportunity for four to learn the ultimate medieval art of jousting with the Knights of Middle England. With over 10 years of jousting experience in live shows and displays, the Knights of Middle England are a medieval jousting team who bring the "knights of old" into the 21st century! Come and learn how the knights performed in the field or learn how they competed at mounted skills to earn the adoration or favour of that particular lady in waiting!

The Knights have the attitude that anyone can "have a go" at learning to joust and they aim to make the experience as fun as possible. The Knights' horses can accommodate any standard of horsemanship – even if you have never sat on a horse before! You will learn the basic jousting skills needed to strike a quintaine (a target that spins around on impact), authentic mounted games, basic sword and staff foot fights. You will also have the chance to dress up in full medieval costume.

This is perfect for corporate days, private events and team-building.
