

Alberto Agrest
EMTA Vice Chair
Citi

Alberto Agrest is a Managing Director at Citi, in charge of its Latin American Credit Trading business. He joined Salomon Brothers in 1996 as an options trader and ran the Latin American Credit Derivatives trading and structuring business before becoming Head of both the cash and derivatives business in 2005.

Prior to joining Salomon Brothers he worked for The Chase Manhattan Bank from 1993 to 1996.

Mr. Agrest holds an MBA from the Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania.