

Mohammed Grimeh
Head of Trading
Head of Global Markets, Americas

Mohammed Grimeh joined Standard Chartered Bank in January 2009 as Head of Trading, Americas. He became the Head of Global Markets, Americas, in June 2009.

He is responsible for managing fixed income, equities and commodities sales, trading, and capital markets for the Americas.

From 1998 to 2008, Mo was with Lehman Brothers in New York City, holding posts as Head of Latam Derivatives, Head of Latam Credit Trading, and Global Head of Emerging Markets Fixed Income and Equities. He has 18 years of experience managing risk and client business in the areas of credit, interest rates, foreign exchange, equities and commodities across the emerging markets. Prior to Lehman, he held trading roles at Societe Generale and ING in Paris, London and New York.

Mo holds a master's degree in engineering from Ecole Central, Paris, where he majored in applied mathematics. He is fluent in Arabic and French. He is Vice Chairman and member of the board of Emerging Market Traders Association (EMTA) and a member of Arab Bankers in North America (ABANA).

Standard Chartered PLC, listed on both the London Stock Exchange and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, ranks among the top 25 companies in the FTSE-100 by market capitalisation. The London-headquartered group has operated for over 150 years in some of the world's most dynamic markets and has an extensive global network of more than 1,400 branches in over 50 countries in the Asia Pacific Region, South Asia, the Middle East, Africa, Europe and the Americas.