

Mehmet Emin Mazi
HSBC Bank

Mazi is Head of Emerging Markets, EMEA for HSBC Global Markets. He has held this position since 2006. Based in the London headquarters, he oversees onshore and offshore risk in more than 33 countries across Central and Eastern Europe, Middle East and Africa. He joined the bank's Turkish unit in 1995 and played an instrumental role in the build-up of HSBC's Turkey operations as Deputy Treasurer and Head of Trading. In 2001 he relocated to London to build and manage the current market leading business many other EMEA markets. Mazi has 18 years extensive experience across debt capital markets, foreign exchange, fixed income and equities in emerging markets.

He is a graduate of Bosphorus University in Istanbul.