
Osmin Rivera

Global Banking & Markets
New York

Osmin is co-head of Latin America. He is also head of Americas Currencies and Emerging Markets (EM) Trading. In this role, Osmin oversees EM and G10 foreign exchange, EM interest rate products and credit trading, with responsibility for teams across Mexico City, New York and São Paulo. He serves as chair of the Goldman Sachs & Co. LLC Fixed Income Best Execution Committee and on the Board of Directors for Goldman Sachs México Casa de Bolsa. In addition, Osmin is a member of the Advisory Board for the Firmwide Hispanic/Latinx Network. He joined Goldman Sachs in 2010 as a vice president and was named managing director in 2013 and partner in 2020.

Prior to joining the firm, Osmin worked at Bank of America Merrill Lynch, where he traded Latin American foreign exchange and interest rate swaps. Earlier in his career, he worked at JP Morgan, where he traded residential asset-backed securities.

Osmin serves as a board member for EMpower — The Emerging Markets Foundation, which works in underserved communities within Emerging Markets.

Osmin earned a BBA in Finance and Marketing from Loyola University, New Orleans, in 2005.
