1 .A Week’s Stay at a Farm on the Baradero River, Argentina – Sleeps TWENTY!

This is a once in a lifetime opportunity to spend an unforgettable week at this beautiful farm, about an hour and a half’s drive from Buenos Aires. The farm consists of FOUR separate houses with 6 bedrooms in total, sleeping up to TWENTY people (3 double beds, 10 single beds and 4 sofa beds). Each house is tastefully furnished and decorated, with fully-fitted bathrooms and air conditioning.

What you do here is up to you... host fabulous family dinners in the main house’s large dining room, hang out with the kids in the outdoor swimming pool, enjoy the spectacular views of the Baradero River, or rent a boat for a spot of fishing, kayaking or (for the more adventurous) waterskiing. The farm also boasts a playground for the kids and SIX horses which are available to ride. Includes breakfast and the famous Argentine asados prepared by your very own gaucho! The ultimate extended family holiday - bring the kids, the parents, the in-laws; or create a syndicate and invite all your friends!

Dates to be mutually agreed. Flights not included.
