I am a graduate of Amherst College, class of 1980, where I earned my Bachelor's Degree in Economics. I completed graduate studies at NYU Stern School of Business in 1983. Before embarking on a 35 year career on Wall Street I completed my CPA working at Peat, Marwick and Mitchell specializing in the Financial Services Industry.

I spent 10 years at Morgan Stanley in various trading roles including Mortgage Finance, Repo, and the US Treasury Market. In 1994 I moved to London for Merrill Lynch, assuming a role as Manager of Repo Trading and Short Rates for all non-dollar G-20 sovereigns, through the Euro convergence.

I was made Managing Director in 1995 and continue to serve in that capacity. In 1997, upon completion of the Euro convergence, I moved back to NY to trade Latin American Sovereigns with a primary focus in Argentina, Brazil, and Venezuela. I have continued to trade emerging markets actively since 1997 and manage various trading desks, serving as Managing Director at Lehman/Barclays for the past 14 years, where I currently reside.

In addition to my trading responsibilities I have held various roles outside the industry including Deputy Mayor of Plandome Manor and President of the Our Lady of Grace Montessori School. I have two wonderful children, Cale and Madeline, 19 and 16, and a wife of 29 years, Traci. I am an avid golfer and dog lover.
