

20th Annual EMTA Forum in Singapore

November 4, 2025

Panel 1

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

PIN RU TAN (Moderator) HSBC

Pin Ru Tan is an Asia-Pacific rates strategist at HSBC Singapore, where she covers regional rates markets. Prior to joining HSBC in 2011, Pin Ru was an Asia FX and rates strategist with another financial institution. For a few years running, she has been voted among the top pan-Asia sell-side analysts in The Asset Survey.

Pin Ru holds a bachelor's degree in economics from Nanyang Technological University, Singapore, and was awarded a Lee Kuan Yew Gold Medal.

DAN WANG Eurasia Group

Dr Dan Wang is China Director for Eurasia Group, specializing in China's economy, industrial policy and geopolitics. She previously served as the Chief Economist at Hang Seng Bank China based in Shanghai, responsible for macroeconomic forecasting and capital market analysis. Before that, she was the Chief Analyst at the EIU, focusing on city development and China's overseas investment.

Dan holds a PhD in economics from the University of Washington, with expertise in property rights, environmental economics and econometrics. During her postdoc research at the Chinese Academy of Sciences, She designed and led nationwide surveys on agriculture commissioned by the Ministry of Agriculture and the State Council. She is a frequent voice in global media and writes a column for FT China. She regularly delivers keynote speeches at government and industry forums and participates in high-level policy discussions worldwide.

JINNY YAN ICBC Standard

Jinny joined ICBC Standard Bank in early 2016 as Chief China Economist, and leads the China macro research team. Her focus is to deliver market relevant insights to global investors and stakeholders. Her team launched the Belt and Road Economic research series, which offers unique insight into China's growing connectivity across emerging economies.

The team's in-depth coverage spans from China's macro conditions and policy impact on global markets to Renminbi internationalization and sustainable finance.

Prior to joining ICBCS, Jinny was a London-based Senior Economist at Standard Chartered Bank, with coverage of China-Europe macro themes. Widely recognised as a China and Renminbi expert in London, she makes frequent appearances in media and at high-level conferences.

(continued)

LYNN SONG
ING Bank

Lynn Song joined ING in 2024 as the Chief Economist for Greater China. Prior to joining ING, he worked at China Construction Bank International, China Merchants Securities (HK), and Haitong Securities as an economist and investment strategist covering various markets.

Lynn holds an MA from New York University in International Business and International Politics, and a BA from the University of California, Los Angeles with majors in Economics and History.

ZHI WEI FENG
Loomis Sayles

Zhi Wei is a senior credit research analyst at Loomis Sayles Investments Asia Pte. Ltd., covering corporates from China, HK and Singapore. She joined Loomis Sayles in 2018 and has more than 25 years of relevant experience in the investment industry and real estate sector.

Previously, Zhi Wei was the executive director of credit research at Standard Chartered Bank, where she also covered Asian high yield credits, and later covered Chinese credits, across a wide industry and rating spectrum.

Prior to this, she was the associate director of credit research at Barclays Capital, where she began as a desk analyst for the principal investment unit and then became a publishing analyst in credit research. Zhi Wei has previously worked as director of research and consultancy for Jones Lang LaSalle Property Consultants, leading a team that covered the property sector in Singapore and other major Southeast Asian cities.