Lock, Stock and Barrel

Holland & Holland, the world-renowned British gun maker is offering one person and three guests an exclusive opportunity to tour the company factory and to see for themselves the craft skills involved in the making of top quality sporting weapons – lock, stock and barrels!

The day starts off in the Mayfair gunroom where the manager will show a range of products made by Holland & Holland. Then the party will tour the factory in NW10, which will take around an hour and a half, and will encompass the barrel making, actioning and stocking shops, the store of walnut blanks and the engraving room. At every stage visitors will see craftsmen practising the skills that have remained largely unchanged since the design of the modern shotgun in the 1920's.

To finish the day, you'll take a short drive west to the company shooting grounds at Northwood for a shared shooting lesson. This is your chance to iron out some old habits or learn from scratch from one of Holland & Holland's expert instructors.
