

EMTA WEBINAR: The Economic Outlook for Zambia October 27, 2020

~ ~ ~ ~ ~

NEVILLE MANDIMIKA (MODERATOR) Rand Merchant Bank

Neville is an Economist and a Fixed Income Strategist in the Global Markets Research division at Rand Merchant Bank. He focuses on developing economic and financial market views for various African countries servicing clients in Africa, UK and the United States.

Neville is contributes regularly to international media such as CNBC, Bloomberg, BBC, Financial Times and Forbes on matters pertaining to fixed income and economics.

ALEX GARRARD Aberdeen Standard Investments

Alex Garrard is a founding partner of Amia Capital and a portfolio manager. Prior to Amia, he was a founding partner of BTG Pactual and a senior PM responsible for EM Sovereign Credit for the Global Emerging Markets and Macro Fund.

Prior to BTG, Alex was a managing director in the emerging markets trading group at UBS. He is a former macroeconomist, who previously worked as an economic advisor to the UK Treasury, and as an emerging markets economist in the City of London.

KATHRYN EXUM Gramercy

Kathryn Exum is Senior Vice President and Co-Head of Sovereign Research & Strategy at Gramercy Funds Management. Ms. Exum has 10 years of industry experience and focuses on global sovereign fixed income opportunities and credit analysis. As a member of Gramercy's Research Team and Investment Committee, she is responsible for making key market calls supported by proprietary research. She manages the firm's sovereign ESG framework and is a member of the Emerging Markets Investors Alliance.

Prior to joining Gramercy, Ms. Exum spent 5 years at J.P. Morgan as an Associate in the Country Risk Management and Sovereign Advisory teams. She was responsible for evaluating sovereign risk appetite through macroeconomic, political, and exposure analyses on a portfolio of countries. Ms. Exum also co-managed and contributed to several sovereign advisory mandates globally.

(continued)

LIAM LOCALIO
Greylock Capital Management

Liam Localio joined Greylock Capital Management in 2013, and is a Managing Director with responsibility for the firm's positions in distressed and special situations corporates and sovereigns. Previously, he was a member of the investment banking group at BroadSpan Capital in Miami for three years, focused on advising both creditors and debtors in the restructuring of corporate and sovereign debt in Latin America and the Caribbean, as well as on mergers and acquisitions throughout the region.

Mr. Localio received a BS in Economics with a concentration in Finance from the Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 2010. He is fluent in Spanish.

AYOMIDE MEJABI
J.P. Morgan

Ayomide is the Chief Economist for Africa (ex-South Africa) research. He joined JPMorgan in 2018 after five years of covering various countries in sub-Saharan Africa, particularly economies in West Africa. He is a top ranked analyst that has been consistently ranked in the top-3 of the Financial Mails annual rankings. Also, he regularly makes media contributions as well as takes public speaking engagements.

Ayomide obtained his MSc in Economics from the University of Warwick.