

LatAm Fixed Income Corporate Bonds Analyst – Buenos Aires

About BancTrust & Co.

BancTrust & Co. Investment Bank is a London-based boutique investment bank specialised in high-beta credit markets in Emerging Markets. The firm offers capital markets advisory, institutional sales & trading and investment research products and services to corporate clients and institutional investors. The investment bank is FCA regulated and has a strong LatAm presence with operations across the region, including Research & Capital Markets teams in Buenos Aires, Bogota & Caracas.

The Role

At BancTrust & Co. we are seeking a self-driven and proactive individual to join our Research team in our Buenos Aires office as LatAm Fixed Income Corporate Bonds Analyst. The ideal candidate will possess CFA and/or MBA and have a track record covering Latin America corporates. Strong analytical and modelling skills are required. The ability to articulate investment rationale for buy/sell recommendations is essential. We offer a competitive compensation.

Key responsibilities will include:

- Conduct fundamental credit analysis to identify profitable corporate bonds in the LatAm spectrum and outperform defined market benchmarks.
- Top-down industry approach.
- Create in-depth earnings reports.
- Understand and articulate relative value versus other fixed income asset classes.
- Monitor and provide timely updates of financial results and material credit events.
- Develop a network of local contacts
- Liaise with sales team and respond to client feedback

Qualifications:

- Candidate should have 3+ years of relevant work experience as Credit or Equity Research analyst.
- Accountant / Economist. CFA or MBA (or working towards completion) highly preferred.
- Superior written and verbal communication skills in English / Advanced or Native Spanish.
- Ability to work within a small group and manage multiple tasks.
- Strong command of MS Office software, particularly Excel.
- Proficiency in Bloomberg and related automated research tools.

BancTrust & Co is an equal opportunity employer. We deem our continued success to be contingent upon the equal treatment of all stakeholders and applicants for employment without discrimination.

To apply please forward your resumé to Ramiro Blazquez (rblazquez@banctrust.com.ar)