

EMTA Webinar on Venezuela

January 14, 2026

~~~~~

ANDREW SCHLOSSBERG (MODERATOR) Akin

Andrew Schlossberg is a Washington, D.C.-based Partner at the law firm Akin Gump Strauss Hauer & Feld LLP. He advises U.S. and non-U.S. clients on a wide range of international trade laws and regulations, with a particular emphasis on U.S. economic sanctions administered by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control ("OFAC"), as well as other national security-related areas such as anti-money laundering (AML), export controls, and customs laws and regulations. His practice encompasses internal investigations, administrative enforcement proceedings, compliance advisory work, licensing, litigation, due diligence, and public policy for clients across various sectors and ranging from start-ups to Fortune 500 companies.

He received a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School and a B.A. from the University of Pennsylvania.

RICHARD COOPER Clearly, Gottlieb, Steen & Hamilton LLP

Richard Cooper is the Global Head of the Restructuring Group at Cleary Gottlieb. His practice focuses on international and domestic restructurings both in the private and public sectors. He has represented corporate, sovereign and municipal debtors, creditors, creditor committees, buyers and sellers of distressed assets, DIP lenders, and other participants in out-of-court and in-court bankruptcy proceedings.

Mr. Cooper advised the US Treasury in its bail-out of the US airline industry at the beginning of the pandemic. Mr. Cooper has represented, among others, sovereign and state-owned enterprises in Argentina, Mexico, Indonesia, Colombia, Lebanon and many others, and he led the team that advised the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico with the restructuring of approximately $73 billion of indebtedness from 2014 –17. He also played a lead role in the development and passage of the federal statute known as the Puerto Rico Oversight, Management and Economic Stability Act, or "PROMESA", which creates the first federal debt restructuring regime available to U.S. territories, including Puerto Rico.

(continued)

BEN RAMSEY
JPMorgan

Ben Ramsey is J.P. Morgan's Head of EM Sovereign Credit Strategy, based in New York. He leads a global team delivering views on top-down EM debt themes and specific sovereign special situations, as well as directional and relative value recommendations in in hard currency bonds and derivatives covering 70+ EM countries.

He previously was head of J.P. Morgan's Latin America Economics Research team, managing regional economics products, while also serving as Chief Economist for the Northern Andean region, a role in which he was consistently ranked in the top 3 by Institutional Investor. In addition, in 2022 Ben co-founded JPM's EM Data Watch Edge, a weekly economics product covering some 30 frontier economies.

Ben first joined Chase in 2000, and in 2002 worked in J.P. Morgan's Brazil office. He holds an MA in international economics from Johns Hopkins SAIS.

RAUL GALLEGOS
Morgan Stanley

Raul Gallegos is the Latin America sovereign debt strategist for the emerging markets trading desk at Morgan Stanley, focusing on Central America, Caribbean, and South American credits.

Raul has 20 years' experience following Latin American politics, economics, and business. He is the author of Crude Nation: How Oil Riches Ruined Venezuela.

Prior to joining Morgan Stanley, Raul was director and practice leader of the political risk analysis team in the Andean region for global risk management consultancy Control Risks.

DAVID AUSTERWEIL
VanEck

David Austerweil is Deputy Portfolio Manager for VanEck where he has co-managed the active Emerging Market fixed income products since 2012.

Previously, he worked at TRG Management, Fitch Ratings and Goldman Sachs.

He has a BA and MSFE both from Columbia University.