microsystems, observing small wonders like spiders and ant lions. Nocturnal game drives reveal big cats and other predators on their quest for prey. 2005 Pax Syrah, Griffins Lair, Sonoma Coast

This wine is a dichotomy, rustic and powerful with mouth coating tannins that promise a long life, but with enough flesh & charm to enjoy young. Sweet blue flowers, chalk, purple fruit, black salt, boudin noir and exotic sweet litchi jump from the wild aromas of this line-up. Intense currant, black pepper, massive tannins and the thickest sweetest middle palate of any wine that we have made from this vineyard to date along with the telltale Griffins Lair traits of iodine, coarse gravel and nori round out the rustic nature of this beastly Syrah.
